

I am strongly opposed to allowing cellular voice communications generally available on airborne aircraft. I would allow wireless data communications but not voice.